

THE COMMISSIONER FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

YOUR VOICE, YOUR RIGHTS, YOUR COMMISSIONER!

WHAT DOES THE COMMISSIONER DO?

The Commissioner for Children and Young People makes sure children and young people in Tasmania are heard, protected, and treated fairly!

WHAT ARE RIGHTS?

Rights are special rules that make sure everyone has the things they need to live a happy, healthy, and fair life. Children and young people under the age of 18 have special rights set out through the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

HOW DOES THE COMMISSIONER HELP?

By listening to children and young people, raising their concerns with decision-makers, and pushing for better policies and services, to support their rights and wellbeing.
