ANNUAL REPORT 2023-2024

CCYP's Annual Reports explain all the important things the Commissioner worked on and did for children and young people around Tasmania.

There's a longer version written for adults that's available on the CCYP website.

CHILD-FRIENDLY VERSION

This Annual Report is all about the things former Commissioner for Children and Young People, Leanne McLean, did from July 2023 to June 2024.

THE COMMISSIONER'S JOB

The Commissioner for Children and Young People speaks up for children and young people throughout Tasmania, making sure their voices are heard and their rights are respected.

WHAT ARE RIGHTS AND WHY DO THEY MATTER?

Every child has the right to be and feel safe, live a healthy life, go to school and much more.

These rights are listed in a document called the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC).

A really important right listed in the UNCRC is the right for children and young people to have a say about the things that matter to them, and for adults to listen and take their views seriously.

WHAT A BIG YEAR!

Here's what the Commissioner and her team achieved for children and young people during the year:
